

Residential Care

Terry Yorath House,
Leeds

Summary

- 24-hour care and support for people with physical and/or learning disabilities
- Purpose-built, single storey home with twelve single occupancy bedrooms
- Situated in the residential area of Roundhay, Leeds
- Two rooms available for respite
- Activity room for hire

About us

Terry Yorath House is a single storey, purpose built home, providing residential and respite care and support for people aged between 18 – 65 who have physical and/or learning disabilities. A committed and appropriately trained staff team provide support 24-hours per day.

Each person who uses the service has a personal development plan - an individually tailored programme, which enables people to ensure that their choices are recorded and carried out according to their wishes and needs.

Our aims

To provide a high quality service based on the needs and wishes of each individual with particular emphasis on promoting independence and encouraging choice. We offer this within a caring, safe and homely environment.

To encourage as full and active a lifestyle as possible and support each person to develop social and living skills to enable them to play as full a part in the local community as they wish.

To enable each person to achieve as high a level of personal fulfilment as possible.

Respite

There are two rooms within the home to accommodate guests on a respite basis. These are available on referral by a care manager or by self-referral. For further information or to arrange a visit, please contact the service manager at the address on the contact page.

www.cqc.org.uk

Click here for more information about this rating

OVERALL RATING: GOOD

Date of inspection visit:
23 and 26 February 2018

Are services safe?	Are services effective?	Are services caring?	Are services responsive?	Are services well-led?
GOOD 	GOOD 	GOOD 	GOOD 	GOOD

Support Team

A competent, caring and committed staff team is available to meet the needs of those who use our services. Training and development of staff is a key priority for us to ensure service delivery is of the highest standard.

Terry Yorath House, like all Saint John of God Hospitaller Services, is led by the people who use its services and individuals are encouraged to play a central part in the running of the service.

Accommodation

The home is purpose built to a high specification with twelve bedrooms and a range of shared areas including a large lounge and dining area, and spacious gardens. Bedrooms are furnished and decorated to people's personal choice.

Location

The home is situated in the residential area of Roundhay, Leeds close to a number of local amenities and Roundhay Park. These include shops, restaurants, public houses, pharmacy and hairdressers. It has the benefit of being accessible to a comprehensive local transport network.

Support

People are supported to access a wide variety of leisure and social activities of their choice and develop skills:

Living skills - cooking, shopping, laundry, personal safety, rights and responsibilities.

Community living - finding out about services near their home including day services, accessing social and community activities, advocacy support, travel and holidays.

Need more information?

If you would like further information about this service or any of the other services we provide, you can get this in several ways:

By telephone:

0113 2662445

By email:

enquiries@sjog.org.uk

By post:

Saint John of God Hospitaller Services
Terry Yorath House
18 Devonshire Close, Roundhay
Leeds, LS8 1BF